Have a Disability?

A Benefits Specialist can take the fear out of going back to work.

Learn about the many incentives available that make it possible to earn more while keeping needed medical and cash benefits.

RCS Empowers, Inc. Work Incentives Benefits Specialists

Work Incentives Benefits Specialists (WIBS) assist people with disabilities by helping them wade through the complexities to make informed choices about the impact of work on their benefits. WIBS provide a written and oral analysis of a person's benefits and how work may change their cash payments, medical coverage, and continued eligibility.
